

Wild Rose Public Schools

Consent Form for Disclosure of Personal Information

The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIP) requires that disclosure of personal information requires consent from the person affected (or their parent or legal guardian), if the information is to be used beyond the original purpose for which it was collected. This form is designed to allow for this consent to be given in writing.

Person whose personal information is to be collected:

Type of personal information to be collected:

Purpose for collection of personal information:

I have given this consent freely and voluntarily, and I understand that my consent may be revoked at any time.

I understand that if I refuse to give my consent that the following consequences may result:

This consent is effective for the following time period (not to exceed the current school year):

My relationship to the person whose personal information is being collected:

Signature:
